IMPORTANT – This contact form sends emails to the editor of the website, (editor (at) whitecoatinvestor.com) not the business manager. If you are contacting us to ask about advertising or a potential partnership please contact Cindy, our business manager at cindy (at) whitecoatinvestor.com. If you are contacting us to ask about a speaking gig, please contact Katie at katie (at) whitecoatinvestor.com. Note that I am VERY responsive to emails (unless in the wilderness in which case there is no way to contact me.) Do not start Googling my name and then calling any numbers you find. Those numbers either go to a hospital or to a physician group's business office. The staff at either of those locations are not paid to do WCI-related work and it is a major hassle to receive calls, letters, and packages at those locations.

Comments, questions, suggestions, and even criticisms about the blog are encouraged! My primary goal with the website is to help YOU, the reader, get a “fair shake” on Wall Street.

Guest posts are welcome, but read the guest post policy first and send them to Jill, our assistant editor, via email. Be aware that many guest posts submitted are not published. If you're interested in being a guest on the podcast, read the Podcast Guest Policy first and follow the directions.

I am willing to come to your location to give live presentations on any topic discussed on this blog. My rate varies depending on how long I have to spend away from home to give the presentation, so contact Katie for availability and a quote at the email listed above. In general, my travel costs plus a significant stipend/speaking fee is provided. Some presentations have qualified for CME in the past. 60-90 days notice is preferred, but not always required depending on my clinical schedule.

You may also hire me to write for your journal, magazine, or website. Samples of my work can be found all over this site, as well as in other written and electronic publications including Medical Economics, ACEP NOW, Practice Link Magazine, Ophthalmology Business, American Academy of Dermatology Young Physician Focus and Physicians Monthly Digest.
